Brand Image System

Creative Brief

This brand style guide provides the information necessary to display the CloudThat brand as it was originally intended. The goal for the brand impression is to be approachable and personal. CloudThat is a company that is passionate, intelligent, and intensely focused on helping people move forward, and move up, in their careers and to the Cloud. The brand reflects the personality, culture, and mission of the company. In this style guide, a set of guidelines for appropriate logo use, color, and typography is included. It is also worth noting that as an example of its versatility, Calibri has been used throughout this style guide. Please contact CloudThat Marketing with any questions related to the brand and company image.

Design Principle.

Everything should be made as simple as possible, but not simpler.

Albert Einstein

No other design element may be positioned within this space, including typography, photography, and illustration. As a general rule, more clear space is preferred.

Corporate Typography and Usage.

Typography plays an important role in communicating an overall tone and quality. Careful use of typography reinforces CloudThat's personality and ensures clarity in all communications. The Roboto family has been selected as the primary typeface and the Cambria family has been selected as the secondary typeface. Marketing materials for CloudThat will echo the same overall tone and quality to reinforce the personality set with its online properties. Proxima Nova has been chosen as the primary typeface for all marketing materials for CloudThat.

Proxima Nova.

Font Description

Proxima Nova (2005) bridges the gap between typefaces like Futura and Akzidenz Grotesk. The result is a hybrid that combines modern proportions with a geometric appearance. I originally released it in 1994 as Proxima Sans (now discontinued) with a basic character set in three weights (Regular, Medium, and Black) with italics. I expanded the original six fonts into a full-featured and versatile family of 42 fonts (seven weights in three widths with italics).

Since the mid-2010s, Proxima Nova has become the most popular commercial (paid) font on the web, used on hundreds of thousands of websites around the world.

Proxima Nova is also available separately as a variable font called Proxima Vara.
